

Helmet reading challenge 2016

- A book about food
- A travelog
- A book where people fall in love
- A book about an immigrant, a refugee or an asylum seeker
- A book you can use to make a bookface
- A book about library
- A book that fits the slogan "My landscape - at countryside and in a city" (Green year/ Vihervuosi 2016)
- A book from an author you have never read before
- A book in a language or dialect that is not your own
- A book written by an Asian writer
- A graphic novel
- A play
- A book with a question as a tittle
- A nonfiction book about history
- A book with an ugly cover
- A book you have never seen before
- A book with a party
- A childrens book
- A book where the protagonist has your dream job
- A book with title referring to a time of the day
- A book written in the 1700s
- A book with Marilyn Monroe in it (90 years from birth)
- A book about a woman who is a pioneer in her field
- A book that has been the pick of the day at Kirjasammo in 2016
- A book that's over 500 pages
- A memoir
- A book written by an African writer
- A book about a subject that is important to your family member
- A book co-written by two authors
- An entertaining book
- A book about the Olympics
- A book with a storm in it
- The last book of a dead author
- A book that has stirred discussion
- A book that takes place in space
- A collection of esseys or columns
- A book with title referring to a season
- A banned book
- A book written by a Nobel winner
- A book recommended by a retired person
- A book where letters are sent
- A book about a country where there has been a war after year 2000
- A book with Pablo Picasso in it (135 years from birth)
- A book where someone dies
- A book about a Finnish man
- A book recommended by a person under 18
- A book written by a South-American writer
- A book that's under 150 pages
- A book published in 2016
- A book recommended by a librarian

Read more about the reading challenge:
www.helmet.fi/readingchallenge

